JULY 20th

Saint Apollinaris, Bishop and Martyr

Today is the birthday of the holy bishop Apollinaris, who was consecrated at Rome by the apostle Peter, and sent to Ravenna, where he endured for the faith of Christ many different tribulations. He afterwards preached the Gospel in Aemilia, where he converted many from the worship of idols. Finally, returning to Ravenna, he terminated his confession of Christ by a glorious martyrdom under the Caesar Vespasian. Saint

Apollinaris, persecution, beatings, and exile did not deter you from fulfilling your mission of winning souls for the Kingdom of God. You were so relentless in your devotion to the Gospel that you never gave up, despite the many sufferings you endured.
Please pray for me, that I will discover the same courage that you had and fulfill my mission with unwavering faith.

There is a time for everything, as season for every activity under heaven.

Summertime is a time for ice cream cones, driveway basketball games, swimming and lazy afternoons.

May the joyous season of summer reflect God's loving care for our children.

The Soil of the Heart

In parables, Jesus uses something familiar in story-form to make a point. The parable draws the listener into the story in order to bring them to a point of decision! Working with soil is fascinating. There are certain types of soil where the condition of the soil is obvious; you know what you are in for before the shovel hits the dirt. There are other types of soil where the condition is not so obvious; you must dig beneath the surface to know what kind of soil you're working with. The same is true with the heart. The human heart is fascinating, not just the physical ticker, but the soul of a woman or man. In Matthew 13:1-23, Jesus connected the human heart with four types of soils to reveal the different responses people have to Jesus and God's Word. Jesus made the connection so that we may take a careful inventory of our lives and know the condition of the soil of our hearts.

Matthew 13:1-23

En paráboles, Jesús usa algo familiar en forma de historia para hacer un punto. ¡La parábola atrae al oyente a la historia para llevárselo a un punto de decisión! Trabajar con tierra es fascinante. Hay ciertos tipos de suelo donde la condición del suelo es obvia; sabes lo que te espera antes de que la pala golpee la tierra. Hay otros tipos de suelo donde la condición no es tan obvia; debe cavar debajo de la superficie para saber con qué tipo de suelo está trabajando. Lo mismo ocurre con el corazón. El corazón humano es fascinante, no solo el corazón físico, sino el alma de una mujer o un hombre. En Mateo 13:1-23, Jesús conectó el corazón humano con cuatro tipos de suelos para revelar las diferentes respuestas que las personas tienen ante Jesús y la Palabra de Dios. Jesús hizo la conexión para que podamos hacer un inventario cuidadoso de nuestras vidas y conocer la condición del suelo de nuestros corazones.
