August 29th The Passion of St. John the Baptist

The Church celebrates the passion of St. John the Baptist who died approximately A.D. 30. We know from the Bible that he was the cousin of Jesus, the son of St. Elizabeth, and also the nephew of our Lady. According to the Gospels, Herod had imprisoned John because he spoke out about Herod divorcing his wife, and unlawfully taking the wife of his brother. Saint John the Baptist spoke the truth with great courage in calling others to a true change of heart, and to embrace the ways of God. He did this not only by preaching, but also by example. He fasted in the desert, and prepared the way for Jesus. He had such a great courage, that he wasn't fearful of speaking out about the immoral activities of his day. This was the reasoning that led to his death, but he continued. We can learn a lot from his life. We too, can embrace the ways of God and speak out of the immorality of our day, and with the help of St. John the Baptist, we can prepare the way for Jesus to those around us.

BUT YOU, WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

It's the central question of the Gospel for the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time. It's the central question of the Gospel, period, and it's the central question of Christianity. We perhaps often have an image of Jesus standing, dressed in his cloak, looking into Peter's (or my) eye and asking, "Who do you say that I am?" I want to propose a slightly different image. Jesus is looking into your eye right now — from the Eucharist. "Who do you say I am? Not "what" do you say I am? "Who" do you say I am? How has Jesus revealed Himself to you? As you ponder this question you may hear echoes from parents, friends, coworkers, teachers or catechist telling you that Jesus is the Son of God, a great moral leader, a healer or the great Messiah. Find some time today to take this question into your time of prayer. Ask your heavenly Father for the grace to reveal Jesus to you more deeply and to convince you more powerfully that he is your Messiah and Savior. Tell Jesus who you say that He is. If you felt his presence during a troubled time, praise Him for being your best friend and guide. If you experienced the relief and joy of forgiveness, thank Him for being your Redeemer and Savior. If you catch a glimpse of His glory at the Father's right hand, worship Him for being the Lord of history, the Son of God. Loving Father, I believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God, equal with the Father, and not created, and yet He chose to leave His heavenly dwelling to be born as a man, live a sinless life, and give Himself to be sacrificed on the cross. Because of Jesus, I have eternal, abundant life. May my praise and thanksgiving ever rise to You, my Lord and my God. Amen.

MATTHEW 16:13-20

Es la pregunta central del Evangelio del XXI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Es la cuestión central del Evangelio, punto, y es la cuestión central del cristianismo. Quizás a menudo tengamos una imagen de Jesús de pie, vestido con su manto, mirando a Pedro (o a mí) a los ojos y preguntando: "¿Quién dices que soy yo?" Quiero proponer una imagen ligeramente diferente. Jesús te está mirando a los ojos ahora mismo, desde la Eucaristía. "¿Quién dices que soy? ¿No "qué" dices que soy? "¿Quién" dices que soy? ¿Cómo se te ha revelado Jesús? Al reflexionar sobre esta pregunta, es posible que escuche ecos de padres, amigos, compañeros de trabajo, maestros o catequistas que le dicen que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios, un gran líder moral, un sanador o el gran Mesías. Encuentre un tiempo hoy para tomar esta pregunta en su tiempo de oración. Pídele a tu Padre celestial la gracia de revelarte a Jesús más profundamente y convencerte más poderosamente de que él es tu Mesías y Salvador. Dile a Jesús quién dices que es. Si sentiste su presencia durante un momento difícil, alábalo por ser tu mejor amigo y guía. Si experimentaste el alivio y el gozo del perdón, agrádecèle por ser tu Redentor y Salvador. Si vislumbras Su gloria a la diestra del Padre, adóralo por ser el Señor de la historia, el Hijo de Dios. Padre amoroso, creo que Jesús es el Cristo, el Hijo del Dios viviente, igual al Padre y no creado, y sin embargo eligió dejar Su morada celestial para nacer como hombre, vivir una vida sin pecado y dar Él mismo para ser sacrificado en la cruz. Gracias a Jesús tengo vida eterna y abundante. Que mi alabanza y mi acción de gracias lleguen siempre a Ti, Señor mío y Dios mío. Amén.
