SAINT ANDREW, APOSTLE NOVEMBER 30th

Andrew was called first, before the other apostles, by the Lord Jesus. Now history tells us how St. Andrew, together with his fellows conducted their new office. Right away they left their nets and followed the Lord Jesus. And again, right away they left the ship and their father and followed Him. To them, Jesus is now the most precious one on earth—according to His mind they learn, according to His words they teach, according to His will they live, according to His decret hey suffer and die. When St. Andrew was threatened with the cross, he said joyfully, “If I feared the punishment of the cross, I would never have preached the mystery of the cross.” Then when he saw the cross, he spoke, “Hail, precious cross, you who were dedicated by the body of Christ; may He receive me through you, who redeemed me through you,” And when he was living after three days on the cross, his hearers wanted to take him down by force, but he said “Ah let God take care of it! Do not make the peace of the Gospel suspect by you unnecessary revolt against the government.” That was apostolic constancy and long-suffering! This is what it means to “leave everything and follow Christ,” all the way to the last catch of fish!”

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Every Thursday after the 8:00 am Mass (English)

First Friday of the month at 7:00 pm (Español)

JESUS, KING OF KINGS, REIGN IN MY HEART!MATTHEW 25: 31-46

He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.

The kings who ruled over Israel and Judah were charged with defending their people from neighboring enemies who wanted to destroy them. Many kings had failed in this regard, which is why the people were waiting for a Messiah-King, a son of David who would again build a great nation as David had. Then along came Jesus, a Messiah who told people to love their enemies and turn the other cheek. What kind of a king was this?

In today's second reading, St. Paul shows us what kind of king Jesus is—One who has conquered our true enemies: Satan, sin, and death. Jesus didn't come to win a battle between nations; instead, he came to win a cosmic battle with everlasting consequences. That's why we celebrate Him today as "King of the Universe."

Unlike an earthly king, Jesus did not engage His enemies with armaments of war. No, he defeated them by dying on a cross. Through his death and resurrection, he saved not just Israel but all who believe in Him. Out of great love for each one of us, Jesus offered himself up, disarming the devil and draining sin of its power. Now we are forgiven, redeemed, and given the grace to love and forgive others as he has done for us. And though we still see evil in the world, we know that Jesus will destroy "every sovereignty and every authority and power" when He comes again.'

Today at Mass, Let's recommit ourselves to living under the reign of this great King. Let's tell Him that we are ready to join Him in rescuing His creation from the powers of darkness. Our King has already shown us how to do this: by offering ourselves in love to one another. Because without a doubt, love is the most powerful force in the universe!

"Jesus, King of kings, reign in my heart today and always."

ADVENT IS COMING Don't Be Unprepared

The Advent Wreath is a meaningful tradition and part of the spiritual preparations for the coming of Christ at Christmas. Beginning today you may purchase Advent Wreaths or large and small Advent candles in our parish of Book Store.

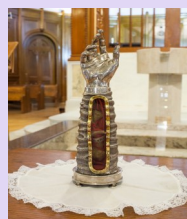

Remembering a loved one at Christmas

Forms can be found at the entrance of the church inviting you to dedicate a Christmas Wreath to a loved one during the Christmas Season.
