Our Lady of Guadalupe

People in Mexico and in the United States celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12. Mary is the Patron Saint of Mexico and Patroness of the Americas. Every year, thousands of people from all over the country make a pilgrimage to the Basilica in Mexico City. The day commemorates her apparition to Saint Juan Diego in the hills of Tepeyac in 1531. She asked him to go to the bishop and tell him that the Ever Virgin Mary, Mother of God, sent him to ask for a church to be built atop Tepeyac hill. Today, as a sign of their devotion to Mary, many pilgrims travel to this site on their knees for many miles. They do this as a sign of their devotion to Mary and to show gratitude for favors received from her. Outside of the shrine there are groups of mariachis, folk musicians, and ethnic dancers who have come to celebrate. Inside, various priests and bishops from all over Mexico gather to celebrate Mass. In the evening, the entrance of the basilica is filled with pilgrims from different regions of the country. Many other fiestas or popular celebrations take place in honor of La Virgen Morena, or the dark-skinned Madonna, all over Mexico. Almost every household erects an altar to the Virgin Mary for the day and the faithful demonstrate their joy by lighting fireworks throughout their cities. Mary's apparition in Mexico to Saint Juan Diego aided the Catholic Church's effort to bring the Gospel to the Americas. This is why the bishops of the United States affirm: "Mary embraces God's will and freely chooses to cooperate with God's grace, thereby fulfilling a crucial role in God's plan of salvation."

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe

En México y en los Estados Unidos celebramos la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe el 12 de diciembre. María es la Patrona de México y Patrona de las Américas. Cada año, miles de personas de todo el país hacen una peregrinación a la Basílica en la Ciudad de México. El día conmemora su aparición a San Juan Diego en las colinas de Tepeyac en 1531. Ella le pidió que fuera al obispo y le dijera que la Virgen María, Madre de Dios, lo enviaba a pedir que se construyera una iglesia en la cima de Tepeyac. Hoy, como un signo de su devoción a María, muchos peregrinos viajan a este sitio de rodillas por muchas millas. Lo hacen como un signo de su devoción a María y para mostrar gratitud por los favores recibidos de ella. Fuera del santuario hay grupos de mariachis, músicos folclóricos y bailarines étnicos que han venido a celebrar. En el interior, varios sacerdotes y obispos de todo México se reúnen para celebrar la misa. Por la noche, la entrada de la basílica está llena de peregrinos de diferentes regiones del país. Muchas otras fiestas o celebraciones populares tienen lugar en honor a La Virgen Morena, o la Señora de piel oscura, en todo México. Casi todos los hogares erigen un altar a la Virgen María por el día y los fieles demuestran su alegría encendiendo fuegos artificiales en todas las ciudades. La aparición de María en México a San Juan Diego ayudó al esfuerzo de la Iglesia Católica para llevar el Evangelio a las Américas. Esta es la razón por la cual los obispos de los Estados Unidos afirman: "María acepta la voluntad de Dios y elige libremente cooperar con la gracia de Dios, cumpliendo así un papel crucial en el plan de salvación de Dios".

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary; Patroness of the Brooklyn Diocese

The Story of the Immaculate Conception of Mary

A feast called the Conception of Mary arose in the Eastern Church in the seventh century. It came to the West in the eighth century. In the 11th century it received its present name, the Immaculate Conception. In the 18th century it became a feast of the universal Church. It is now recognized as a solemnity. In 1854, Pius IX solemnly proclaimed: "The most Blessed Virgin Mary, in the first instant of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege granted by almighty God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the savior of the human race, was preserved free from all stain of original sin."

Reflection

In Luke 1:28 the angel Gabriel, speaking on God's behalf, addresses Mary as "full of grace" or "highly favored". In that context, this phrase means that Mary is receiving all the special divine help necessary for the task ahead. However, the Church grows in understanding with the help of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit led the Church, especially non-theologians, to the insight that Mary had to be the most perfect work of God next to the Incarnation. The logic of piety helped God's people to believe that Mary was full of grace and free of sin from the first moment of her existence. Moreover, this great privilege of Mary is the highlight of all that God has done in Jesus. Rightly understood, the incomparable holiness of Mary shows forth the incomparable goodness of God.
